

Frequently Asked Questions

Cellular Directory Home

What is the CellySource B2B directory?

It is a unique cellular industry B2B directory that will expose your business and get you more customers! Our user friendly directory is categorized and makes it easy for visitors to find the wireless businesses they are searching for.

How does it work?

1. We build a profile pages for your business (basic & premium members only) under the appropriate category.
2. We promote your business through article & blog marketing, social and business networking, email marketing, forum marketing, and more.
3. Your business gains more exposure online and gains additional business offline.

View our "Why CellySource" page for more specific information on how our services will help your business succeed.

What type of exposure can my business expect?

CellySource is being found in major search engines, on social networks, and on many other sites online. Our aggressive SEO and marketing practices drive traffic and potential customers to our site daily. We can guarantee that your business will gain more website traffic, more emails, and more phone calls by being exposed to industry professionals nationwide. Learn more about our services.

Will CellySource get me more customers? Is it worth it?

Yes! We truly feel that our efforts along with the sheer number of wireless professionals and retailers nationwide will prove to be beneficial and a smart return on investment. There is nothing like CellySource on the world wide web! You can't afford not to use our services! Learn more about our unique services.

What other services do you offer?

We also offer website design and management for wireless businesses or others interested in our services. Our affordable and professional websites will provide your business with an additional tool to succeed. Design your website today. In addition, we offer article, blog, and online marketing services, social networking services, and a wireless jobs center.

How quickly will my listing be published on CellySource?

Very quickly! Once you submit your business information to us, we will have your listing(s) up within a 24 hours. Sign up today and choose your membership.

Can I update my business page/information after it is published?

Yes, If you need to update anything on your listings simply contact us and we will take care of it immediately. Your business is allowed 1 change per calendar month at no additional charge.

How do I become a featured member on the site?

Our team randomly rotates our featured members. However, we only feature our premium members, providing them with additional exposure that basic members do not receive. Compare the difference between Basic & Premium memberships.

Can my company be listed in multiple categories?

Absolutely! We provide a 10% discount off your total price for the multiple categories for 2 listings and 20% off your total price for the multiple categories for 3 or more listings. If your company would like to be listed in more than three categories, please contact us to discuss your options.

My company name appears on your site but has no other information about it?

Besides our members, our site lists additional companies that can help our site visitors find what they are looking for. However, these free listings only contain the company's name. In order to tell these visitors more about your company, simply become a basic or premium member.